MEGATOYS

We were all children once, and our memories of childhood are usually associated with toys and games. So why should we be deprived of the joys of playing just because we are adults? Megatoys is a collection of objects, articles and places; a compendium of "toys" to enjoy now we are older.

Many items produce great personal enjoyment because they transcend our daily lives and allow us to be different from everyone else. They are things which are characterized by being mega-different, mega-unique, mega-exclusive and above all, mega-expensive. Cars, motorbikes, yachts, private planes, jewels, destinations and luxury goods form a spectrum of alternatives we can enjoy and with which we can entertain ourselves. They are magnificent, excessive and have a demonstrable value, and all call for excellent, superior quality, distinctive touches, and, in some cases, they are limited or numbered editions.

We invite you to enjoy with Megatoys.
