The author:

Born in Buenos Aires, Argentina, Jorge Bendersky became interested in dogs at a very early age. Known as a celebrity dog stylist and pet trendsetter, Jorge is a passionate educator with a strong belief that knowing how to properly groom your own dog will deepen the bond between a pet and his owner and help improve the pet's and the owner's quality of life. With more than twenty years of experience working as a professional groomer in New York City, Jorge has developed a grooming and pet-care philosophy based on practicality but without the loss of glamour. Behind the scenes, Jorge applies his passion for animals to improve the lives of all dogs, especially those in shelters and rescue situations. Through his tireless efforts and dedication, he has been honored with national humanitarian awards for his educational workshops for pet owners in the inner cities, for his volunteer efforts with animal rescues, and for his years of bringing attention to the importance of our responsibility to not only dogs but also all animals.
