ECO ROOM WITH PLANTS IN NEW YORK

Living with Plants. Styling for Comfortable Interior and Space

This is the 2nd volume of the popular Deco Room with Plants by the plant artist, Satoshi Kawamoto. This book shows many ways to make plants a part of daily life, accompanied by numerous photographs, especially of Satoshi Kawamoto's house in New York, his six Green Fingers shops in Japan and the last one, recently opened in New York. With over 300 images, the informative and hilarious DIY guide once again shows you endless ways to maximize the greening of one's work and living spaces. Included are five fully illustrated chapters on home styling, shop styling, friend's place styling, exhibition styling and brand styling. Kawamoto recently opened his shop in New York City, Green Fingers – on the 10th anniversary of his company's foundation – and brings to New Yorkers the ability to discover that overlooked nook or cranny that can easily hold a small forest of succulents, places like inside that always empty refrigerator!

Highly recommended for anyone who wants to use plants to make their daily life richer.

The author:

Satoshi Kawamoto is a well-known garden stylist, trying to blend the charm and the beauty of plants with the transformations of the passing time. Satoshi not only works with plants but he ranges through different genres in the 6 shops he owns and runs in Japan and the last one he recently opened in New York, and in the displays he creates for several magazines or other shops and department stores. He also deals with the decoration of wedding parties through the brand Forque, and with expositions and temporary installations.
