N.191 GO HASEGAWA

The renowned Japanese architect Go Hasegawa was born in the Saitama prefecture in 1977 and graduated from the Tokyo Institute of Technology in 2002. In 2005 he established the Go Hasegawa & Associates office. From the beginnings, his works have won several prestigious prizes, such as the Kajima Prize for his House in a Forest (2005), the Tokyo Society of Architects & Building Engineers' Gold Prize in Residential Architecture Award (2007), the Tokyo Gas House Design Competition Grand Prix (2007), as well as the 24th Shinkenchiku Prize (2008). During his career, he lectured and taught as visiting professor at the Tokyo Institute of Technology and the Tokyo University of Science, the Harvard University Graduate School of Design, and the Polytechnic University of Milan. His first monograph Go Hasegawa Works was published in 2012.
